

Enigma is open seven days a week, providing teenagers a facility in which they can socialize, recreate and develop a sense of ownership. Enigma is governed by a Teen Advisory Board that represents the 6th—12th grade users of the facility. Shakopee Parks and Recreation oversees the Teen Advisory Board of Enigma and provides one adult staff person at all times. For current information regarding Enigma, please call Brad Eller at 952-233-9507.

To set up a party that will not be forgotten, contact Brad Eller at 952-233-9507.

Advisory Board

Meets every Thursday at 4:00 PM

Make a difference and join the teen board that oversees Enigma. You'll learn leadership and responsibility by helping to run band and DJ events, providing input on how the facility is run and making decisions about the amenities and décor at Enigma. To become eligible to vote as a member, you must attend three meetings, work one DJ event and work one band event. T.A.B. members also go on special outings and are active in community events.

Superbowl Party

Are you a 'Superfan'? Prizes, pizza, snacks and games will make this the best superbowl party you've ever been to. Watch the game on the bigscreen or on one of the several TV's in Enigma and enjoy some PS2, Xbox, Pool, or whatever else you'd like to play with your friends during the Superbowl.
